Bunker restaurant.

Moscow is a very big city in Russia where you can visit different unusual places like parks, city centres, attractions. For me the best place I have ever visited in Moscow is Bunker restaurant.

This restaurant is located in one of the streets in the centre of Moscow. Bunker restaurant is a real bunker which is located deep underground. This is a historical place because this bunker was used by russians ~~for~~ wars. This restaurant is Soviet Union restaurant where you can eat a lot of USSR food. What is more, the design of this place is in Soviet Union style. ~~Also~~ Moreover, people here can see the pictures of USSR presidents and also read some information, amazing facts about them.

I like this place because I didn't live in Soviet Union but I honestly want to know how people lived in this time, what they are, what they did. This restaurant makes me feel smarter and happier because this fabulous place give us an opportunity to know more facts about our country's history.

I really recommend to foreign tourists to visit Bunker restaurant because I guess that most of them have no idea what the Soviet Union is. If they visit this place, it will give them knowledge about history and they will know a little bit more about Russia and USSR at all.
