Moscow is the main city of Russia. WRITING

There are lots of beautiful places to visit in Moscow, but my favourite is the Red Square. It's the main square in Russia and is located in the heart of the capital. This location is popular with tourists and every year millions of people visit this place. I like the place because there are a lot of activities there. You can walk along the square, go to different museums and visit the shopping centre. Also make incredible photos. The nearest cafes are full of the smells of Russian cuisine and laughing people. Many shops with souvenirs are located nearby. What is more, you also can take a photo with actors, who look like historical personalities. I was in Moscow twice and all times visited the Red Square and always felt different senses. I'm glad that such exciting place is located in Russia. People from all the world have to see it.

The Red Square is the first place which foreign tourists have to visit in Moscow. This place helps to know more about Russia, our culture and history and people who live there.
